

Avian

Seminar Table of Contents

Chapter I	Overview of Bird Sources <ul style="list-style-type: none">Captive Bred BirdsCommercial BreedersHobbyistsWild Caught BirdsLegally Imported BirdsSmuggled/Illegal BirdsDistributors
Chapter II-a	Receiving Birds <ul style="list-style-type: none">The Intake ExaminationExamining Newly Received BirdsRejection PoliciesVeterinarian's Examination
Chapter II-b	Health Maintenance Plan <ul style="list-style-type: none">CagingEnvironmentPerchesDietCanaryDoves and PigeonsFinchesToucans and MynahsThe Small PsittacinesThe Larger PsittacinesBaby BirdsSupplies NeededHand FeedingHand Feeding FormulasDiets AvailableCommon Problems EncounteredMaximum Volumes of Formulas to FeedWeaning Baby Birds
Chapter III	Disease Prevention <ul style="list-style-type: none">SanitationSanitation ChecklistDaily ChecklistWeekly ChecklistVaccinationsChlamydia Prophylaxis/Disease Control Plan
Chapter IV	Bird Diseases <ul style="list-style-type: none">Viral DiseasesBacterial DiseasesBacteria-like DiseasesFungal DiseasesEctoparasitesEndoparasitesProtozoal ParasitesInternal MitesNon-Specific Disorders

- Chapter V Medical Treatment of Birds
First Aid
Administration of Medication and Equipment
- Chapter VI Resource Section
Consumer Relations
Dispensing Antibiotics or Other Medications
Illness/Disorder Identification and Treatment
Substances Toxic to Birds
- Chapter VII Convention on International Trade in Endangered Species of Wild Fauna and Flora (CITES)
- Chapter VIII Government Agencies (Federal and Provincial)
Regional Offices of Environment Canada
Provincial Ministries Responsible for Wildlife Protection
Regional Offices of Agriculture and Agri-Food Canada